In the opening event Stalwart scored nother win. He has improved greatly. In the third race Rose of Dawn won easily, bringing home a wager for Pratt, of Buffalo, being one of the heaviest winners. The attendance was unusually heavy for an off day. The track was fast and the weather just right for racing.

Stalwart by a Neck.

Jocund was the choice of the talent Jocund was the choice of the talent.

He was played down to 9 to 5, but later, when Stalwart and Leonidas were played, he went back to 11 to 5. Jocund went away like a winner and held the lead, followed by Stalwart and Leonidas to the stretch. Stalwart kept going, and, wearing Jocund down in the last sixteenth, won by a neck. Jocund was a length in front of Scarfell.

l'nusual Steeplechase. The most remarkable thing about this steeplechase was that all the horses finished. Daylesford and Malden made the running, followed by Captivator and Trek. This order held until six furlongs from home, when Trek took second place and laid in behind Malden to the stretch, where he closed and won in a drive by a head. Malden was twenty lengths in front of Royelle.

Rose of Dawn Eastly.

Rose of Dawn rushed to the front and made the running, followed by Dorothy Grey and Teacress to the stretch. The latter took second place in the stretch, but could not catch Rose of Dawn, who won easily by two lengths from Teacress. Marie Frances closed strong in the last furlong and nipped Dorothy Grey out of third money.

Heads Apart in Stake. Gay Boy was a strong favorite in the Caussill, but Ascension, having Hildebrand up, had strong backing. Old England up, had strong backing. Old England rushed to the front and made pace, followed by Ascension, Stevedore and Gay Boy. There was no change to the stretch. There Ascension took the lead and De Reszke came through, followed by Gay Boy. In a furious drive Ascension lasted long enough to win by a head from Old England, who heat De Reszke a head, the latter beating Gay Boy a head.

JAPANESE LOST 10,000 SOLDIERS IN THE ASSAULT ON THE FORTRESS.

Gen. Stoessel Sends an Official Report of the Three Days' Battle on Land and Sea in which He Estimates the Russian Losses at 1,500 Killed and Wounded.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—A cablegram from Chefoo says that in an abtack upon Port Arthur the Japanese protected cruisers Chivoda and Itsukushima were sunk by the explosion of mines.

This is a fragmentary report which, pieced out with others, indicates that the attack upon Port Arthur by the Japanese on July 26, 27 and 28 was the most determined yet attempted. The enemy evidently approached the stronghold on all sides, by sea and land.

RUSSIAN SHIPS IN BATTLE

Previous reports hinted that two Russian ships had been injured in the discredited. It is believed that all the statements emanating from points round Port Arthur as to actions concern the three-day attack last month. Incomplete despatches show that eight Japanese warships led the attack on July 26. It is thought that the Russian ships went out to repel them that since the assault they "have been repaired." Reports of a naval co-Louis until then, being only found for gagement coincide with stories of a torpedo boat attack upon the Russ fleet which have arrived from various sources.

Carpenter was pretty weterd on the PUT JAP LOSS AT 10,000.

Saturday's despatches gave the Japanese .oss in killed at 15,000. Gen. Stoessel's official report says that 10,000 of the attacking army were slais.

Despite the enormous losses they have sustained the Japanese are moving on Port Arthur with unrelenting persistence. The Russians have retired from the outer forts and are now entrenched in their strong points of defense with big protected guns commanding every point of proach. While the Japanese armies in Manchuria are preparing for a new move upon Gen. Kuropatkin news of a new and bloody engagement

St. Petersburg was comforted to-day by the report of Lieut.-Gen. Stocasel. Gilbert to McGann retired Smoot. Dunn got under Brain's foul fly. Bresnahan took charge of Barclay's boost. NO RUNS.
